Three Minor Leagues Open Opening day this year was not a joy and glory for the major league fan exclusively. Heretofore the major league was not have begun before any of the minor league were under way. But no less than three of the prominent minor cleuits made, their bearest. circuits made their bows on the occa-tion of the start of "big time." These were the American Association, one of three Class AA organizations, and the Southern Association and Texas League, both Class A.

The Giants, in the opening of the baseball championship season at the Polo Grounds, came strong at the finish of their game with the Brooklyn of their game with the Brooklyn Dodgers, but the Dodgers beat them by a score of 4 to 3.
